

Charnwood Primary School

Tuesday, 20 June 2017

Dear Parents/Carers,

Many of our pupils and families will be celebrating Eid very soon. We currently understand that Eid may take place on either Sunday 25th June 2017 OR Monday 26th June 2017. The school will authorise one day religious observance absence for pupils who will be celebrating Eid.

If Eid is on Sunday 25th June 2017, pupils must attend school on Monday as normal. Any further days taken will be unauthorised and will be reported to our Education Welfare Officer (EWO).

If Eid day is on Monday 26th June 2017, pupils celebrating will be entitled to have that day off to celebrate Eid.

If your child is celebrating Eid on Monday and is going to be absent, please send a text to the school or leave a message on the school's voicemail.

For all the families who are celebrating Eid, I wish you all a very happy Eid.

Thank you very much for your co-operation and understanding.

Yours sincerely,

Ms N Jassat
Head teacher
